Trio Típo musicians Steve Haskin, Don Sellers, and Terry Storhaug first played together the Spring of 2002 during Art-A-Whirl in Northeast Minneapolis. Their musical chemistry was explosive and as time passed, they increased their repertoire to include coffee houses and other eclectic venues.

In the Spring of 2005 they released their first CD, "Where We've Been", and continued making deeper inroads into the local Twin Cities music scene. Featured on TC Muzik TV and interviewed on KFAI radio, crowds were drawn to their CD release performances. Recently, they were invited by the Metropolitan Public Airport Foundation to perform at the Lindburgh terminal, providing music to travelers from around the world and soon will release their second CD, "Costa del Sol". Trio Típo continues to receive enthusiastic responses from those who hear them.

Their music is unique and original. It doesn't fit into any particular style though many styles can be heard within it. Listeners from all ages and musical tastes have come to appreciate Trio Típo as they continue to evolve with the sound they call "Acoustic Fusion". They are purely instrumental with no vocals and provide captivating music for any special event. Having performed for a variety of audiences, Trio Típo brings quality entertainment for any occasion.

Steve Haskin has been a professional guitarist in the Twin Cities since 1979. He is also a composer and has released two CDs of original music: "Boundary Waters" and "Mississippi Goin By." Steve teaches guitar and composition at Minneapolis Community and Technical College.

Terry Lee Storhaug has been drumming in the Twin Cities for over 25 years playing with a number of ensembles in a wide range of venues. More recently he has been developing an original exotic style of drumming while assembling a unique variety of percussion instruments. Terry owns Old Science Renovation, a furniture restoration shop.

Don Sellers settled in the Twin Cities in the 1992 after many journeys throughout the U.S. and overseas, absorbing the musical flavors of places he's been particularly Latin America, Spain, and the Mideast. Don teaches guitar as well as spanish and works in his newly created Skylight Sound recording studio in NE Minneapolis.

*'Music at once familiar and strangely exotic.....
They're easy to listen to without being easy listening.'*

— Pulse of the Twin Cities

'Acoustic instrumentalists Trio Tipo play hushed, worldly melodies undeserving of raucous bars.'

— City Pages

'TRIO TIPO is one of the few groups I can listen to over and over again and never get tired of hearing. That Latin, Classical, Jazz rhythm sounds good any time of day. I'd book them anytime.'

— D.Lawrence, Coffee Grounds

Their chemistry has been music to the ears of their audiences since their first gig in 2002.

— The Villager

Trio Tipo is one of most innovative bands to emerge from the local music scene.
